

Dear Daniele

Thank you for your correspondence regarding the devastating fire at Grenfell Tower in Kensington.

We appreciate you taking the time to contact the Mayor with your comments and suggestion regarding this tragic incident.

As you can imagine, the Mayor has received hundreds of queries on this issue. Londoners have commented on a range of topics including fire and building safety and helping the community.

As you may be aware a Public Inquiry has been ordered.

The Mayor will continue to fight for, and alongside, the community of Grenfell, and all Londoners, to get the answers they deserve as soon as possible.

The suggestions and comments we have received do help us to identify Londoners concerns.

Unfortunately, due to the volume of correspondence we have received on this matter we are not able to respond to everyone's query in detail.

I would like to refer you to the City Hall website www.london.gov.uk which provides details of the incident and the work of the Mayor.

Comme vous pouvez l'imaginer, le maire a reçu des centaines de questions sur cette question. Les Londoniens ont commenté une série de sujets, y compris la sécurité des incendies et des bâtiments et l'aide à la communauté.

Comme vous le savez peut-être, une enquête publique a été commandée.
